

SUMMARY

My name is Prabhakar Vangala and I have lived in Orlando since 2006 and have been an active member of the Hindu community and specifically the HSCF. I worked as a Project Manager from 2006 to 2011 in a software company and since then I have started and managed my own business. As a member of the Hindu Society, I have always attended the cultural activities to support the society in general and local performing artists in particular.

- Excellent leadership and communication skills
 - Team player who is respectful of others
 - Willing to work on the goals, programs and activities of the temple in order to enhance religious, spiritual, social, cultural and educational wellbeing of its members and the community it serves.
-

Community Involvement

I have donated ceiling tiles to the temple at two different times as part of renovations to the cultural hall as well as the main temple. I have actively participated in collecting donations for the Kumbabhishekam. For five years, I was the coordinator for the local chapter of Manabadi which is a school for teaching language and culture to telugu children.

GOALS FOR HSCF

If elected as member of the GC, I vouch that I will fulfill all the required duties that go with the position not limited to the activities mentioned below:

- Help to raise funds to improve the infrastructure
 - Develop policies to improve the security of HSCF and community
 - Help to complete senior housing
 - Education of Hindu culture to our kids and next generation
-

Professional Experience

Entrepreneur

Feb 2011 to Present – Started and operating three different companies in Orlando

Project Manager

January 2006 – January 2011 – Worked in a software company in Orlando